2. Whenever in these Bylaws the word Conference is used it shall be held to refer to the Corporation as a Conference of the United Church of Christ and as a Conference of Massachusetts Congregational Christian Churches.

3. All Churches which are members of Associations in voluntary fellowship with and recognized by the Conference, whether or not such Churches are a part of the United Church of Christ, are entitled to elect voting members of the Conference in accordance with these Bylaws.

4. Whenever in these Bylaws the word "Area" is used, it shall be held to refer to those Associations or combinations of the Associations decided upon by the agreement of the respective Associations and recognized by the Conference.

ARTICLE II

Denominational Basis

Following Congregational principles, this Conference shall under no circumstances exercise authority over Churches or individuals or interfere with the government or discipline of the Churches. It shall advise and counsel the Churches when requested, but it is recognized that each Church has the power of self-determination in all matters.

ARTICLE III

Doctrinal Basis

This Conference declares its steadfast allegiance to the faith which our forebears confessed, which, from age to age, has found its expression in the historic creeds of the Church Universal and of this Communion.

ARTICLE IV

Appendix A - RESOLUTION ON CHURCH MEMBERSHIP GROWTH

THE THEOLOGICAL CALL

We believe that faithfulness means fruitfulness. "God...gives the growth" and we are called to cultivate it, pray for it, and hope for it. (I Corinthians 3:7).

The Acts story of apostolic mission is our charter: Peter and John did an act of mercy outside the Temple gate and proclaimed the Gospel, a word in the midst of deed that evoked the hostility of the powers of this world but won the "Yes!" of the people. (Acts 3:1-4:31)

In the context of holistic mission, church growth is not cheap grace. God calls us and empowers us to be a healthy, growing and serving Body of Christ.

THE SITUATION

Although over half of our churches have shown modest growth in the last calendar year, over a period of 15 years our Massachusetts Conference churches have lost a third of their membership! This must be viewed against a general population growth in Massachusetts of approximately one per cent since the 1970 Census.

THE CHALLENGE

Institutional survival is one rationale for pursuing an intentional evangelism and church membership growth program. Another loftier reason is faithfulness to the Gospel. However, faithfulness can never be judged apart from the situation surrounding it. If our history and traditions, Bible study and spiritual inclinations, leadership and free church decision-making processes call us to peculiar, particular and distinctive ministries in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, then we are committed to an intentional evangelism/church growth program. To do anything other than pursue those ministries with the invitation for greater enlistment and the involvement of ever greater numbers, is to be unfaithful.

In a community that is unchurched and growing in population, faithfulness may mean rapid membership growth through intentional energetic outreach. In a community with static population which is possibly overchurched, faithfulness may mean striving to hold membership at present levels. In a community with declining population, faithfulness may mean working to control the rate of membership decline while alternatives are explored. While we recognize circumstances in particular communities may suggest that numerical growth in church membership is not a viable goal for every congregation, we would affirm that an overall growth in church membership for the Massachusetts Conference is both faithful and viable.

THE COMMITMENT

Therefore, BE IT RESOLVED that the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ, gathered for its 184th Annual Meeting in South Hadley, on June 3-6, 1983, calls upon our congregations to join in seeking an overall membership growth goal of 2% or 2,710 new members above the December 31, 1982 total membership figure of Massachusetts Conference churches by December 31, 1988, and urges the Board of Directors to assist churches in assessment and goal determination appropriate for each respective congregation.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that programmatic support for evangelical and faithful growth be provided by the Conference for churches that make a commitment to church membership growth.

Appendix B - RESOLUTION ON HANDGUN CONTROL

WHEREAS 23,000 deaths are caused by handguns in the United States each year, and 31 people lose their lives each day through handgun violence; and

WHEREAS according to a study of Florida inmates convicted of murder or assault with a handgun, only 22.8% said they would have committed the crime without a handgun; and

WHEREAS the fear of armed bandits has affected freedom of movement in parts of our cities; and

WHEREAS there is no individual right to bear arms because the Supreme Court has ruled on five separate occasions that the second amendment to the United States Constitution merely grants the states the right to form a national guard; and

WHEREAS handguns afford little protection to their owners because 92% of burglaries occur in unoccupied houses; and, during half of the remaining break-ins, the occupants remain asleep; and

WHEREAS more than 200,000 handguns are stolen from private homes each year, and these weapons comprise up to 80% of the criminally used handguns; and

WHEREAS the availability of handguns is directly correlated with handgun crime and violence; and

WHEREAS the Church has a Biblical prohibition against killing, and the example of Jesus working for peace and reconciliation and acting to prevent violence and to relieve human suffering;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the 184th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ support efforts at every legislative level to restrict handgun availability; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the 184th Annual Meeting urges local churches in the Massachusetts Conference to work with other interested groups and churches to further the passage of the following legislation: a freeze on all handgun sales (S1279) and a freeze on sales of snub-nosed handguns with a barrel length of three inches or less (S1276, H444#);

BE IT FURTHER RECOMMENDED that the 184th Annual Meeting urges each church to:

1. appoint a member to act as liaison between the church and Citizens for Handgun Control, 25 West St., Boston, MA 02111, (617-423-4193);
2. arrange for a speaker from Citizens for Handgun Control so that parishioners may be educated on the issue;
3. encourage the writing of letters to elected officials;
4. post displays and voting records on handgun control;

5. take a poll of the membership after adequate education has taken place; and if a broad consensus of support among church members exists, the liaison member should write to the elected officials and inform them that voting records on this issue are being displayed prominently in the church;
6. use political advocacy at both local candidates' meetings and at hearings in the State House for a freeze on the sale of handguns.

Appendix C - RESOLUTION CONCERNING THE DRAFT AND THE SOLOMON AMENDMENT TO THE MILITARY APPROPRIATIONS ACT

All men residing in the United States who have been born on or after January 1, 1963 are required to register for the draft within 30 days of their 18th birthday, unless they are aliens in the U.S. on temporary visas. The penalty for failing to register can be up to five years in jail and/or a fine of up to $10,000.

On September 8, 1982 Congress passed the Solomon Amendment to the Military Appropriations Act, which declares non-registrants for the draft to be ineligible for federal aid to education. Students must file a statement of compliance with the financial aid office of their college or university, and show proof of either registration or of exemption by reason of sex, age, or active duty service in the armed forces.

There is no established procedure at this time for students who wish to be classified as conscientious objectors, other than registration for the draft. C.O. and hardship classifications will be assigned after the registrant receives an induction notice. Registrants will have 10 days to prepare a file of evidence for their beliefs as conscientious objectors. Regulations governing the development of an alternative service system (1-W) are now under consideration by the Selective Service System.

The Solomon Amendment has received a preliminary injunction in federal court in Minnesota, because it is likely to be found unconstitutional on grounds of violation of students' Fifth Amendment rights against self-incrimination. The ruling is binding in Minnesota and may be used as precedent by other courts in the country. The suit, filed by the state Civil Liberties Union and Minnesota PIRG, also charges denial of constitutional right of equal protection to the poor, males, and minority students (many of whom receive financial aid); denial of due process; and violation of the Federal Privacy Act, which states that student educational records cannot be used for unrelated purposes.

Similar amendments are expected to be attached to other social legislation governing benefits such as food stamps, welfare, and unemployment compensation.

WHEREAS the UCC has historically supported and endowed independent private education without public control or administration; and

WHEREAS the General Synod of the UCC has in 1961 and 1967 supported and affirmed the "recognition of the right of conscientious objection to participation in or support of war" or to military training and service, and has extended "moral and spiritual support" to its members who choose alternative service; and

WHEREAS the use of federal financial aid as a means to enforce registration for the draft is a form of coercion of conscience and violation of due process of law; and

WHEREAS the use of federal financial aid as a means to enforce registration for the draft discriminates against poor and middle-income male students who are dependent on such assistance; and

WHEREAS the UCC supports campus ministers at a number of colleges and universities across the state; and

WHEREAS the UCC has a long history of advocating the rights of the poor and promoting educational opportunities for minorities; and

WHEREAS the UCC has embraced Peace as its primary priority since 1981; and

WHEREAS the UCC understands itself to be called to peacemaking by Jesus Christ, the Prince of Peace;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the 184th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ opposes the Solomon Amendment on the basis of its discrimination against the poor and middle income male students dependent on financial aid for their education; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Annual Meeting encourages its member congregations to write their legislators for repeal of the Solomon Amendment; and to urge upon the selective service system the development of conscientious objector guidelines which make it possible to assign C.O. classification before receipt of the induction notice; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that campus ministers and churches in the UCC and in its ecumenical mission units be encouraged to assist students in weighing the moral and ethical issues involved in the decision to register for and serve in the Armed Forces; to support those students who choose to serve; and to help those students who seek alternatives to prepare such statements of belief and other documentation as may be necessary to exercise their rights to conscientious objection; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the 184th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference of the UCC propose this resolution for adoption by the 14th General Synod of the United Church of Christ.

Appendix D - RESOLUTION CALL TO WHOLENESS

In 1973 the Ninth General Synod committed itself and commended to the congregations, associations and conferences of the United Church of Christ the elimination of sex and race discrimination in every area of its life. In 1981 the Board of Directors of the Massachusetts Conference, responding to a request from the Council For Local Church Life and Ministry's Task Force on Women in Church and Society, committed itself to be intentional in its use of inclusive language. Other recommendations relating to women and minorities in ministry were also adopted.

Language is powerful - it can hurt or heal - depending on how it is used. Many times the use of exclusive language can be harmful both psychologically and emotionally. As Christians we are called to be intentionally inclusive. Scripture teaches us that we all are created in God's image. Throughout the Bible, God is revealed as reaching out to humankind, admonishing and nurturing us both as mother (Is. 49:15) and father (Hos. 11:1-4.) Scripture tells us that men and women are called by God to leave their securities and venture into unknown places; to speak out against injustice; to recognize their shortcomings and to work toward a vision of wholeness. In an act of sacrificial love, God sent the Christ to redeem us from sin. The Good News of the Gospel tells us that we, too, are God's sons and daughters, called to be faithful servants and to love humankind by reflecting God's inclusive love and purpose for us all.

Therefore, the 184th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ calls upon local churches and Associations to:

- (1) encourage the leadership (clergy and lay) to become familiar with such topics as: the diversity of God's image found in Biblical literature; the theological understanding underlying the patriarchal Biblical narrative; the legitimate possibilities for the translation of Biblical language and the variety of women as well as men who responded to God's call and served to illustrate God's purpose; and
- (2) educate others on these topics through workshops, study groups, worship, etc.; and
- (3) encourage the awareness of the exclusive nature of the use of such terms as: "generic man", "brotherhood", "pilgrim fathers", and so forth as found in hymns, newsletters, bulletins, prayers, by-laws, curriculum and descriptive roles, and to become aware of the effect of exclusive language.

- (4) encourage inclusive language, illustrations and images in all areas of the church's life; and
- (5) encourage persons responsible for education to participate in workshops and other opportunities which will broaden their understanding of the issue of inclusion and provide them with skills and resources to help them to move toward a vision of the wholeness of the people of God in their teaching.

Recognizing that the Board of Directors of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ has already committed itself to inclusion, the 184th Annual Meeting directs the Board of Directors to:

- (1) assure that resource information is made available to assist local churches and associations in their work toward inclusiveness; such information should include: study materials, workshop leaders, bibliographies and media catalogues; and
- (2) request the educational consultants to provide informative workshops and training opportunities on inclusive language for those responsible for adult and child education in the local church; and
- (3) inform their councils, task forces and committees of this resolution and to request that they exemplify inclusion through their words and actions; and
- (4) urge the UCC Executive Council to move with haste toward the publication of an inclusive language hymnal to supplement the new Book of Worship.

Appendix E - RESOLUTION ON BRIDGES FOR PEACE

WHEREAS Jesus Christ teaches us that all men and women are children of God and hence brothers and sisters; and

WHEREAS fellowship and communication between peoples is necessary to establish and maintain the family ties between peoples and nations that God intends for us; and

WHEREAS continual misunderstandings of ideas and feelings between the United States and the Soviet Union increase the ignorance and fear standing between us and daily make more serious the risk of nuclear war:

BE IT RESOLVED that the 184th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ, meeting in South Hadley, Massachusetts on June 3,4, and 5, 1983, endorses the "Bridges For Peace" program begun in the fall of 1982 in the state of Vermont and adopted by the Vermont Conference of the United Church of Christ which seeks in principle to increase communication with citizens in the Soviet Union for the purpose of encouraging each other in attempts to influence the public policy of both nations to the end that the nuclear arms race will be stopped.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the 184th Annual Meeting:

- (1) encourages the Associations, churches, and individuals associated with it to participate in the activities of organizations associated with "Bridges For Peace"; and
- (2) charges the MACUCC Peace Priority Task Team with making the opportunities for correspondence, exchange visits, and cooperation for peace available to the Associations, churches, and individuals associated with the United Church of Christ in Massachusetts; and
- (3) calls upon the MACUCC Peace Priority Task Team to report on its progress in this venture to the 185th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ.

Appendix F - A RESOLUTION FOR GENERAL SYNOD IN SUPPORT OF A PEACE AND JUSTICE IMPERATIVE
BE IT RESOLVED that the 184th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference, United Church of Christ, expresses its support of, and commends to the 14th General Synod the adoption of A RESOLUTION ON A PEACE AND JUSTICE IMPERATIVE, the text of which is made part of this resolution.

Resolution on a Peace and Justice Imperative

WHEREAS the church of Jesus Christ is called in season and out of season to the work of peace; and

WHEREAS the church of Jesus Christ is called in season and out of season to the work of justice; and in that real human needs deserve priority over weapons spending;

WHEREAS peace and justice are the indivisible fullness of God's promise of the coming Age:

in that the struggle of nation-states for control, material gain and "security" undermines the commitment of Christ's people to the self-determination of all peoples;

in that the burden of military policies is borne disproportionately by the poor and people of color around the world; and

WHEREAS the United Church of Christ has always opposed the identification of the peace issue with white communities and the justice issue with third world and "minority" communities and insists that these two goals not compete with each other in the life of the church but rather be pursued in harmony; and

WHEREAS the urgency of these issues in our times and the depth of their meaning in American life and history demands that we inconvenience even our process and our careful planning; and

WHEREAS the Fourteenth General Synod meets at a time of grave economic crisis, when unemployment, hunger and depression run rampant in our communities, and the cries of our brothers and sisters cannot be ignored; and

WHEREAS the United Church of Christ will not content itself with Peace as Priority only, or Justice as perennial Resolution only;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the United Church of Christ will make PEACE WITH JUSTICE THE IMPERATIVE of the Church for the next decade;

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the United Church of Christ upholds the right of every person to have food, shelter, health care, education and employment, as well as the right to security and freedom from war, as the minimal elements of justice for all, and thus commits itself to the work of establishing economic systems that are just, democratic and sustainable, making peace the parent of justice and justice the parent of peace;

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that we deplore the failure of existing political and economic systems to produce either justice or peace, in that:

huge military resources, which purport to defend the respective nation-states from foreign aggression, are in fact used to intervene overtly and covertly in the affairs of other peoples:

the continuing production and reliance on weapons only threatens to destroy human civilization; weapons development consistently takes priority over human need;

the violation of human rights in the name of "national security" is endemic in most existing nation-states;

God's creation is consistently portrayed as a world of scarcity in order to justify the pursuit of individual and corporate greed;

BE IT RESOLVED that the Fourteenth General Synod of the United Church of Christ calls upon all of its sisters and brothers in the faith to join in prayer and spiritual dedication to the end that God's promise of peace with justice, and justice with peace, may become an abiding reality in our lives, and specifically recommends that the season of Epiphany become a time in the life of every individual member, local church, association and conference of the United Church of Christ when services of prayer, confession, fasting and other appropriate forms of spiritual dedication be entered into with this spirit;

BE IT FINALLY RESOLVED that the Fourteenth General Synod of the United Church of Christ directs its officers, the Executive Council, the established agencies and instrumentalities, including the Board for World Ministries, and strongly urges all recognized instrumentalities, conferences and local churches to commit their strength and resources to the imperative of peace and justice worldwide:

- by linking peace ministries with justice issues;
 - by linking justice ministries with peace issues;
 - by instituting a program of special funding, including but not limited to a special offering to be received annually for the support of the imperative and to be administered by the Executive Council;
 - by engaging in programs of dialogue, education, demonstration, and confrontation led by the President and members and organizations of the United Church of Christ at decision-making points in our society;
 - by asking the President of the Church to report to the next five General Synods on the progress of implementing this imperative.

Appendix G

RESOLUTION TO ENDORSE S.T.O.P.

WHEREAS the General Synod of the United Church of Christ adopted peace as one of two Church priorities for a four year span beginning in June, 1981; and

WHEREAS the youth who were present at that General Synod urged support for peace as a priority; and

WHEREAS the future of our Church, the future of the world, and the future of all depend upon the commitment and involvement of young people in peace work; and

WHEREAS the Student/Teacher Organization to Prevent Nuclear War (S.T.O.P. Nuclear War) was founded in Massachusetts by a UCC minister who is an active member of the Massachusetts Conference Peace Priority Task Team; and

WHEREAS S.T.O.P. Nuclear War is a tax exempt, educational organization which has developed extracurricular programs specifically for use in secondary schools and houses of worship; and

WHEREAS the Peace Priority Task Team of the Massachusetts Conference endorses the S.T.O.P. Nuclear War program;

GUIDELINES FOR CLERGY COMPENSATION 1984

The 184th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ recommends to local churches the following guidelines for determining their pastors' salaries to avoid weakening the church and its ministry through neglect of the financial needs of its ordained leaders.

A. CONSIDERATIONS FOR DETERMINING CLERGY COMPENSATION

While the ministry is a unique profession requiring special patterns of financial compensation, several overall factors can be considered in determining the level of support for clergy. The total compensation package could justly be comparable to the median income of the parish, and perhaps be on a par with that of the local high school principal, showing consideration for years of service and special skills and training, and including annual cost-of-living increases.

B. CASH SALARY

The cash salary (not including housing and other expenses) ought to be no less than $14,500 for a full-time person in ordained ministry; less than $14,500 would indicate a person called to part-time work.

*C. SOCIAL SECURITY ALLOWANCE in an amount equal to at least one-half of the self-employment SS Tax (9.35% in 1982 rising to 10% in 1986); such allowance would be taxable income but it would ease the burden of the big SS tax bite.

D. HOUSING THAT PROVIDES:

- (a) a furnishings allowance¹ and an equity development plan² for those living in a parsonage; or *(b) a housing allowance³ for those who want to rent or own their homes.

E. BENEFITS WOULD INCLUDE:

1. a pension plan, with a church contribution of 13%⁴ of salary basis, which is (a) at least 130% of cash salary plus any furnishings allowance for those living in a parsonage, or (b) cash salary plus housing allowance for those with such allowance;
 2. a family protection plan, including disability insurance which is an additional 1% of pastor's salary basis;
 3. group life insurance, which costs $50.00 per year;
 4. medical and health insurance as provided through Conference office (e.g. $2,394 in 1983 per family or $1,197 for single);
 5. continuing education funding;
 6. sabbatical leave plan;
 7. holiday and vacation time;
 8. maternity/paternity paid leave.

¹A tax-free amount equal to no more than the fair-market rental value of the parsonage furnishings plus the cost of utilities not paid for by the church. See HOUSING FOR CLERGY, by Manfred Holck.

²See Holck, op. cit.

³A tax-free amount equal to no more than the fair-market rental value of the home, furnished, plus the cost of utilities. See Holck, op. cit.

⁴Recommended to be 14% by 1985.

*Keep posted for new regulations by Social Security and the Internal Revenue Service.

- F. ALL PROFESSIONAL EXPENSES either paid directly by the church or fully reimbursed and not considered salary to include;
1. books, professional subscriptions;
 2. professional memberships;
 3. travel expenses and car allowance (church-owned car or travel reimbursement), and any other expenses incurred by the pastor and directly attributable to the exercise of ministry.

Appendix I A RESOLUTION REGARDING THE ARMENIAN QUESTION

WHEREAS there are 14 Armenian Congregational Churches in the United States (three of which are in Massachusetts), all members of the United Church of Christ, which each year on Armenian Martyrs Day (April 24) commemorate the victims of the Armenian genocide perpetrated by the Ottoman Turkish Government during the years 1915-1922; and

WHEREAS world history has been largely silent that a genocide of the Armenian people ever took place; and

WHEREAS the people of Armenia, now scattered throughout the world, continue to be embittered and distrustful of this silence; and

WHEREAS revisionist histories are being written to deny not only the Armenian genocide but the Jewish holocaust as well; and

WHEREAS the Armenian people throughout the world, survivors of that genocide, have waited for 68 years for national and international declarations on human rights on their behalf; and

WHEREAS certain segments of the Armenian people are presently being motivated by the conviction that their just cause will not prevail by peaceful means which they have pursued for 68 years; and

WHEREAS there are secret Armenian liberation groups who are using assassinations of Turkish officials as a means of bringing the Armenian question to the attention of Turkey, America, Europe and the U.N.; and

WHEREAS the Armenian people as a whole are a peace-loving people and do not sanction any form of violence; and

WHEREAS the predecessor denomination of the United Church of Christ, namely, The Congregational Christian Churches, because of its missionary presence (American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions) in Turkey throughout most of the 19th Century and to the present time (U.C.B.W.M.), in particular from 1895 to 1922, has witnessed the persecutions, massacres and genocide of the Armenian people and has voluminous records in its archives to verify these atrocities; and

WHEREAS eastern Turkey is the original homeland of the Armenians, and the number of Armenians who lost their lives during the genocide and as a result of the genocide was approximately one and one-half million, constituting one-half of all the Armenians in Turkey during those fateful years;

BE IT RESOLVED that the 184th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ extends to the Armenian people and to Armenian Churches of the UCC its understanding and sympathy because of this tragic event;

BE IT ALSO RESOLVED that the 184th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ recommend that our United Church Board for World Ministries seriously consider the Armenian Question and our UCC response;

BE IT ALSO RESOLVED that our U.C.B.W.M. report their findings and recommendations by March 1984 to our Massachusetts Conference's Council for Mission Outreach and Social Responsibility in the spirit of our covenant together seeking justice and reconciliation for all concerned in this crucial matter.

BE IT ALSO RESOLVED that the 184th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ submits this resolution to the 14th General Synod of the United Church of Christ for adoption.

RESOLUTION CONCERNING THE OPERA COMPANY OF BOSTON AND THE PHILIPPINES

A. BACKGROUND STATEMENT

In March 1982 Sarah Caldwell, Director of the Opera Company of Boston (OCB), announced an agreement between the OCB and Imelda Marcos, wife of the Philippine dictator Ferdinand Marcos and a Cabinet Minister, to collaborate in the creation of an opera company in Manila. In return for this service, the OCB will receive a reported $100,000 per year from Mrs. Marcos.

The Marcos government is notorious for its economic and political repression, and for the torture of its citizens who differ in their opinions from those in power. The Church in the Philippines has cried out strongly against these conditions, conditions which have been repeatedly documented by Amnesty International.

In the year since this announcement religious leaders, musicians, Filipinos, human rights activists and others, in Boston and around the world, have appealed to the OCB to sever this relationship.

Filipinos in the United States have protested. A group of Filipino artists in exile, led by theatrical director Cecile Guidote Alvares, expressed their opposition directly in a letter to Sarah Caldwell. Senator Benigno Aquino, imprisoned by Marcos for seven years and now living in exile in Boston, criticized the timing of this venture. The Philippine News of San Francisco has given extensive and sympathetic coverage to the protests. Filipinos affiliated with the U.C.C. in Massachusetts have protested.

Over 90 musicians in the Boston area signed a public letter requesting, in the name of artistic integrity, that the project be discontinued. In November the Boston Globe editorially questioned the wisdom and morality of this partnership. The Hartford Courant also editorialized against the arrangement.

In Boston, critics made sure that evidence of the Marcos' dictatorship violations of human rights was placed in Opera Company hands, so that ignorance of these conditions might not be a cause of this policy. In August a meeting was arranged with Sarah Caldwell, at which documents from Amnesty International, church sources in the Philippines, and the U.S. press were given to her. Charito Plannas, a director of the Philippine Chamber of Commerce who was jailed by Ferdinand Marcos for 14 months, was present at this meeting to give first-hand testimony. Later in the year another meeting was arranged so that a member of the Amnesty International 1981 Mission to the Philippines might report on human rights conditions in that country. Sarah Caldwell did not attend, but a member of her Board of Directors did.

In 1983 Caldwell, speaking from Manila, announced that she would continue her program of cooperation with the Philippine dictatorship. Defending her course, she has mentioned "great strides" made recently in the Philippines. But in February 1982 Sister Mariani Dimaranan, leader of the Task Force for Detainees in the Philippines, reported 300 "disappearances" for 1981, as contrasted with an average of 100 for the years 1975-1980. In the past year the U.S. press has carried reports of Marcos' arrest of priests, nuns, and labor leaders. Amnesty International, in a document released in December 1982, reported at least 30 priests arrested between January and September of 1982, and numerous other nuns and lay workers arrested, detained or killed.

B. THEOLOGICAL CONNECTION AND CONCERN

The UCC and the MACUCC have initiated and supported programs concerning arts and artists in our society, in recognition of the great contribution the arts make to religious expression and perception, to the spirit of human society, and to the history of our world. Notably, the Fellowship of the Arts, created by the UCC and voted support and recognition by the Annual Meeting of the MACUCC some years ago, seeks to encourage artists to flourish and to think ethically about the work they are doing.

It is our theological understanding that artists, like everyone in society, have ethical and moral responsibilities. Their expression is encouraged to be free and thought provoking. Their expression, like all human expression, takes place within the context of the social, ethical and moral situation in which they live. Artists, in the Christian understanding, must consider (as all people must) the impact and effect of their work on the rest of the society. So we understand the teaching of Jesus in Luke 12:54-57, "...You know how to interpret the appearance of earth and sky; but why do you not know how to interpret the present time? And why do you not judge for yourselves what is right?"

Artistic institutions must likewise consider their impact and effect on the social order within which they serve their art. Artistic institutions represent the culture of their people and serve the spirit of their people through their cultural expression. As non-profit institutions in American society artistic institutions have a public responsibility to consider the commitments they make in the public arena as commitments which include us all.

The Church, which cherishes the vision of the Kingdom of God expressed in the Scriptures, and which supports many institutions, artistic and otherwise, in the hope of that vision, has an obligation to speak critically to the relationships and commitments of social institutions and of the society as a whole, when those relationships and commitments significantly deviate from that vision.

WHEREAS the UCC in general and in specific in the City of Boston is directly involved in fostering and supporting artists and artistic institutions that enhance human life, delight human sensibilities and deepen the human spirit; and

WHEREAS through our Ministries in Higher Education we have significant relationships to artists and artistic institutions; and

WHEREAS the Boston/Cambridge Ministry in Higher Education has sought to address the relationships between the artistic institutions, the university, the church and the world; and

WHEREAS the UCC is committed to a vision of peace with justice as set forth in Scripture; and

WHEREAS the Filipino people live in dire poverty, repression, danger, and economic and moral subjugation, as attested by Amnesty International, church leaders and the U.S. press; and

WHEREAS the Church in the Philippines cries out against the oppression and subjugation experienced by its people, and appeals to Christians around the world for support (most recently in a joint pastoral letter issued by Cardinal Jaime Sin and the Bishops of the Philippines and read in 3000 churches in the Philippines on February 27, 1983, and reported in the New York Times the same week: the letter, in part, denounces the Marcos regime for "the torture and murder of citizens simply because they hold differing political persuasions from those presently in power"); and

WHEREAS the Opera Company of Boston has entered into a contractual relationship with a Philippines government leader to provide consultation and assistance in the development of an opera company in Manila in return for a reported $100,000 per year; and

WHEREAS this relationship has been protested by letter and in conversation by many individuals, church and human rights groups including many musicians and singers, and by demonstration at the Opera Company, to no avail; and

WHEREAS the Opera Company of Boston represents a gifted and cherished part of the cultural life of our city, state, and nation; and

WHEREAS the relationship between the Opera Company of Boston and the Marcos regime does a disservice to the Opera Company, its artists and director, and the people of Boston, the Philippines and the world, through its association of the spirit of our life and art with a spirit of repression and cruelty in the extreme;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the 184th Annual Meeting of the MACUCC deplores this relationship and urges the Opera Company of Boston to sever it; and

BE IT RESOLVED that the 184th Annual Meeting of the MACUCC joins in prayer and petition with the Church in the Philippines before God and the world, that the suffering of this people may cease and a new rule of peace with justice be instituted among them which may be celebrated with song and rejoicing; and

BE IT RESOLVED that the will of this Meeting be communicated to the Opera Company of Boston, the Marcos government, the Senators and Congress persons of Massachusetts, Governor Dukakis, Mayor White, the Boston City Council and the Massachusetts Commission on the Arts; and

BE IT RESOLVED that the will of this Meeting of the MACUCC propose this resolution for adoption by the 14th General Synod.

Appendix L - RESOLUTION OF ENDORSEMENT OF AND PARTICIPATION BY MEMBERS OF THE MASSACHUSETTS CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST CHURCHES IN THE DEMONSTRATION FOR JOBS, PEACE AND FREEDOM IN WASHINGTON, D.C. ON AUGUST 27, 1983

WHEREAS the goals of jobs, peace and freedom for all peoples were central to the Washington, D.C. demonstration in 1963 where Martin Luther King, Jr. told of his dream; and

WHEREAS that dream was, is and shall be at the center of the Christian gospel; and

WHEREAS people from across the United States are called to Washington, D.C. once more in the summer of 1983 by Mrs. Corretta King that the dream and its goals be affirmed and the people rededicated;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the 184th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ:

1. endorses the goals of the Demonstration for Jobs, Peace and Freedom to be held on August 27, 1983 in Washington, D.C.;
